Thursday, February 6

SBA Faculty Speaker Series: Professor Jeannine Bell

The SBA Faculty Speaker Series is a monthly event where students can hear professors speak for a few minutes about what their passions are. Students can then ask professors questions about what they did before their professorships, what their interests are in the legal community and the community at large, and any other relevant questions they would otherwise not get the chance to ask. This is a great opportunity to learn more about your professors outside of class. Make sure to bring your own lunch, and SBA will provide cookies and drinks. Room 124, noon.

Career Choices: Government Practice, Civil

Panelists: Professor David Delaney and Liane Groth Hulka, JD'05, staff attorney in the Chapter 13 bankruptcy office of Trustee Ann Delaney, JD'77. Be sure to RSVP for small-group and dinner sessions available in the Events section on Symplicity - space is limited! Room 125, noon.

FLF and LSRJ Spring Semester Meeting

The Feminist Law Forum and Law Students for Reproductive Justice will be having their important spring semester business meeting. Please contact us if you cannot attend at alyschwa@indiana.edu. Room 214, noon.

Graduate Legal Studies Colloquium

The Colloquium is a weekly meeting of graduate students to discuss common academic concerns and research interests. This week, Professor Gjerdingen will talk on how to draft a good outline and a publishable dissertation. Lunch will be provided. Room 124, noon.

Maurer School of Law Korean Law Forum

Join other Korean law students who are working on their thesis or dissertation as we share our fields of study but also examine differences between U.S. law and Korean law. Library room 206E, 11 a.m.

"Share the Love, Stop the Violence." — Women's Law Caucus Auction

Join the WLC for its annual auction. Proceeds benefit Middleway House and the Protective Order Project. Doors open at 6:30, and the auction starts at 7 at KRC Banquets, 216 S. College. Appetizers will be provided. Come and bid on packages from your favorite professors and local businesses! There is free parking available at the venue. Please remember that you must pay for any item you win with cash or check at the event. Many students get groups together to bid on the professor packages to enjoy the prize together. The packages will be announced on the facebook page before the event so that everyone can figure out what they want to bid on. Make sure to RSVP to the event so you can get all the updates.

Announcements

Accepting Applications from 1Ls and 2Ls: Eric T. Werner Global Cyber Security Policy Advancement Exchange Program and Microsoft Internship - China

Applications for the Eric T. Werner Global Cyber Security Policy Advancement Exchange Program and Microsoft Internship are now being accepted through Monday, February 17th. Two students from the Maurer School of Law will serve as Eric T. Werner Scholars, spending approximately eight weeks during the summer at Xi'an Jiao Tong University conducting research with colleagues at the Information Security Law Research Center, and spending approximately four weeks interning in Microsoft's policy division in Beijing. Applicants must have taken or must be currently enrolled in a course in information security law. Please see the call for applications posted on Symplicity or at cacr.iu.edu/microsoft. Applications will be accepted in hard copy to room 220 and electronically to sportwoo@indiana.edu. For help with Symplicity, please contact Ms. Kim Bunge (kbunge@indiana.edu). (Note that applications may not be submitted via Symplicity.)

Looking for a Job? Join The Club

Professor Bill Henderson welcomes 2L and 3L students seeking employment, and a new way to find it, to join "The Club." From basic elements to high-intensity interviews and high-profile connections, The Club will arm you with the tools you need to seek and secure a job. Members can anticipate one-on-one mentoring and a whole lot of honesty. The Club will be limited to a select number of students who will meet a minimum of four times before the end of the academic year. Meetings will be hosted by Bill Henderson and dinner will be provided. Recent graduates and Maurer alumni will also be a part of the group. In exchange for The Club's resources, outreach opportunities, and encouragement, your attendance at every meeting, completion of every "homework" assignment, and enthusiasm is expected. This isn't the time or the place for pessimism.

Want to join? Submit your name, age, year, preferred area and city of practice, and a short synopsis of why you want to be a part of this group to Judy Asmus (jasmus@indiana.edu). Save your résumés and cover letters for later. You'll need them.

Congratulations to 2L Ben Lewis and 2nd year JD/MBA Hamed Bayat, who represented Maurer in its inaugural year of participation in Tulane Law's National Baseball Arbitration

Competition. The competition, judged by MLB arbitrators, team representatives, and player agents, requires students to represent either teams or players in arbitration proceedings that require a command of player valuation methods, baseball statistics, and contracts. In our first year, the Maurer team advanced through three rounds on day one, landing the first seed and advancing to the semifinals on day 2.

CJAM Conflict Resolution Training

Basic Mediation Training: The Community Justice and Mediation Center (CJAM) offers a 32-hour basic mediation training for any community member interested in helping facilitate community mediation. The winter training will take place from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. over two weekends, February 8-9 and 22-23, at the IU Maurer School of Law. Participants who complete the training are eligible to work as CJAM volunteer mediators; however, any community member interested in learning basic mediation skills is welcome to participate. The training will be led by Professor Emeritus of Law, Ed Greenebaum. Tuition is $250, with scholarships available.

Restorative Justice Practitioner Training: Restorative Justice Practitioner Training explores the philosophy and methods of restorative justice as reflected and implemented in CJAM's restorative justice programs. The RJP training will be Saturdays, March 1 and 8, at the I.U. Maurer School of Law. Completion of CJAM's Basic Mediation Training or its approved equivalent is a prerequisite. Participants who complete Restorative Justice Practitioner Training are eligible to work in CJAM's Victim and Offender Restoration Program (VORP) and Shoplifting and Theft Education Program (STEP). However, all mediators who are interested in learning about restorative justice and its practice are welcome to participate. The training will be led by senior Restorative Justice Practitioners. The fee for the RJP training is $100, but will be waived for those who have committed themselves to volunteer as RJP's for CJAM for the current academic year and for those who have demonstrated their commitment to CJAM by previous volunteering.

Information, registration forms, and scholarship information for both programs are available from: training@cjamcenter.org, www.cjamcenter.org, or 812-336-8677.

Faculty News

Professor Dan Cole presented a paper (co-authored with Michael D. McGinnis and Graham Epstein), "Digging Deeper into Hardin's Pasture: The Complex Institutional Structure of the 'Tragedy of the Commons,'" at a conference on The Global Commons at BYU's J. Reuben Clark Law School in Provo, Utah.

The Conservation Law Clinic won a case in which Lake Michigan shore front property owners claimed ownership of the beach right down to the water's edge. The trial court ruled that, regardless of ownership, any activity on the beach must be consistent with the "public trust" restrictions to protect critical natural resources.

On January 28, Professor Dawn Johnsen filed an amicus curiae brief with the US Supreme Court that she co-authored in Sebelius v. Hobby Lobby Stores. The brief was in support of the Guttmacher Institute and Prof. Sara Rosenbaum.
